

Letter from William P. Andrews to Alexander Graham Bell, March 13, 1872, with transcript

L Copy of a letter written to A. Graham Bell, Esq., Clarke Institution for Deaf Mutes, Northampton, Mass., from American Social Science Association, 13 Pemberton Square, Boston. March 13, 1872. A. Graham Bell, Esq., Northampton, Mass. Dear Sir:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of 6th inst.

We have made arrangements with the publishers of the "Old and New" magazine to print your paper on "Visible Speech" in their next issue, with woodcut illustrations, and enclosed herewith you will find specimen of the size of their type page.

Mr. Perkins desires me to say that it is very desirable to have the article ready for the press as soon as possible, and you will kindly furnish the diagrams at your earliest convenience.

Any copies of the article which may be wanted will be printed by themselves in pamphlet form.

I am, dear Sir,

Very truly yours Wm. P. Andrews.
